

Our Alphabet

From September we will be teaching children to write their letters using a cursive script. This will help children to join their handwriting more easily as they move through the school.

This is just for your information. Please do not feel obliged to teach the children this over the summer holidays.

