

CKIS School Council – Meeting 2 – 26.11.2019

KJ, EM, LS and all children were present.

Agenda:

- To introduce our visitor from the NSPCC
- To feedback the information gathered from classes
- Our visitor to discuss and introduce the work of the NSPCC and the readathon.

Points discussed:

- Our visitor discussed what the NSPCC do and what it stands for.
- She told the children why they are such an important charity.
- She taught the children how they can access the charity.
- She also made them all NSPCC “ambassadors” and gave them all badges.
- She explained the readathon to the children and how the money raised could be used within the charity

Actions for next meeting:

- Children to make posters to promote the readathon
- EM and LS to ask the office to send out letter/email/text promoting readathon to the parents.
- Children to explain to their classes why they were NSPCC ambassadors and what they meant.
