

HOW TO RAISE INDEPENDENT CHILDREN

WEBINAR

Wednesday 15th March 2023 6-7pm WEBINAR

Although it might be hard to imagine it now, our children will become adults sooner than we think. And our job as parents is to make sure that they have the skills to successfully navigate the adult world. One of those skills is to be independent and not just helplessly wait for others to do things for them. It won't surprise you to hear that learning independence doesn't start when children are 18 so what are the best ways to encourage age-appropriate independence to last them a life-time?

During the webinar we will discuss:

- What is age-appropriate independence during primary school years?
- How to ensure balance between too little and too much independence?
- Which tools to use now to help our children succeed when they are outside our domain?
